ADMONITIONS

1. YOU ARE CHARGED WITH FELONY OFFENSE OF _____

2. RANGE OF PUNISHMENT: If convicted, you face the following range of punishment:

FIRST DEGREE FELONY: A term of life or a term of not more than 99 years or less than 5 years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice; and in addition, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00

SECOND DEGREE FELONY: A term of not more than 20 years or less than 2 years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice; and in addition, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00.

THIRD DEGREE FELONY: A term of not more than 10 years or less than 2 years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and in addition, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00.

HABITUAL OFFENDER: A term of life or any term of not more than 99 years or less than 25 years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

FIRST DEGREE ENHANCED: A term of life or any term of not more than 99 years or less than 15 years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice; and in addition, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00

STATE JAIL FELONY: Confinement in a State Jail for not less than 180 days nor more than 2 years, and in addition, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00.

STATE JAIL FELONY ENHANCED:

Two Prior State Felony Convictions: Punished as a third degree felony.

Two Prior Felony Convictions: If the second conviction is for an offense committed subsequent to a final conviction for the first, second degree felony punishment.

Deadly Weapon: If it is shown that a deadly weapon was used or exhibited during the offense or flight there from, or that the defendant was previously convicted of an offense under section 3g of 42.12 Code of Criminal Procedure, punished as a third degree felony, or if previously convicted of a felony, punished as a second degree felony.

The Court may require a person placed on community supervision for a state jail felony to serve up to 90 days in a county jail or from 90 days to 180 days in a State Jail Facility as a condition of supervision.

You are not entitled to earn any good time credit on any state jail sentence. The Court may, but is not required, to give you credit on a state jail sentence for any time served in jail either awaiting trial or as a condition of supervision. The Court must give you credit on your sentence for any time you were required to serve in a state jail as a condition of supervision.

3. PLEA BARGAIN: Whether or not a plea bargain exists, recommendations of the prosecuting attorney are not binding on the Court. If a plea bargain does exist, the Court will inform you whether it will follow the agreement in open court and before any finding on your plea. Should the Court reject the agreement, you will be entitled to withdraw your plea and any document filed as a part of the plea proceeding. Recommendations in the Pre-sentence Investigation are not binding on the Court but may be imposed by the Court along with any reasonable condition of supervision. If there is no plea agreement, the defendant has no right to withdraw the plea following sentencing.

4. PERMISSION TO APPEAL: If the punishment assessed does not exceed the plea bargain agreement between you and the prosecutor, the Court must give permission before you can appeal on any matter in the case except for matters raised by written motion before trial, and specifically preserved for purposes of appeal as a part of this plea bargain.

5. CITIZENSHIP: If you are not a U. S. Citizen, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere may result in deportation, exclusion from admission to the country or denial of naturalization under federal law.

6. SEXUAL OFFENDER REGISTRATION: If convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for an offense triggering the Sex Offender Registration as set out in Chapter 62 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, you will be required to meet the registration requirements of that law. For a list of offenses triggering sex offender registration and the details of that law, see Chapter 62. The undersigned attorney and the defendant represent to the Court that said attorney has advised the defendant regarding the requirements of Chapter 62. The sex offender registration laws include many details other than those listed in these admonitions, are subject to change, and may be applied retroactively. Failure to comply with the registration law is a felony offense.

7. FAMILY VIOLENCE: If the defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor involving family violence, (Tex. Fam. Code § 71.004), it is unlawful for the defendant to possess or transfer a firearm or ammunition.

8. DEFERRED ADJUDICATION: If the Court defers adjudicating your guilt and places you on probation, on violation of any condition you may be arrested and detained as provided by law. You are then entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the Court of whether to proceed with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. After adjudication of guilt, all proceedings including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation and your right to appeal continue as if adjudication of guilt had not been deferred. After adjudication of guilt you may be sentenced to any sentence within the range of punishment prescribed by law. You have 30 days after the Court defers adjudication to request in writing that the Court adjudicate guilt. You have the right to petition the Court for an order of nondisclosure under Sec. 411.081, Govt. Code, unless you are ineligible to pursue that right because of the nature of the offense for which you are being placed on deferred adjudication or your criminal history.

8. APPLICATION FOR COMMUNITY SUPERVISION: Defendant further states that he/she has:

1. Never before been convicted of a felony or received Community Supervision after conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony offense, or
2. Been convicted of a felony or received Community Supervision after conviction or deferred adjudication for the offense of _____ in the District Court of _____ County, Texas.
